Pastor's Ponderings –

Can we spend some time focusing on Leviticus? All too often we look at this Old Testament book as mundane. We tend to think of it as just a lot of offerings and sacrifices, laws and rules, do's and don'ts, and a whole lot of blood. But it's really so much more than that. It is a book about "The Holiness of God" and what is required for fellowship with Him. It is a book that points out the sinfulness of man and what is required for atonement with God; how He provides the way for us to have access into fellowship with Him. It is therefore a book on worship...worshipping a Holy God, and living a Holy life. We are created in the image of God, and we are created to have a close relationship with God, walking in close fellowship with Him. Many people are unwilling to have that close relationship with God, but that doesn't mean that we weren't created for that purpose. The essence of the book of Leviticus, and the call upon our lives is this... "Be holy because I, the Lord your God, am holy." Leviticus 19:2.

From the time the Tabernacle was erected in Exodus 40:17 and the time the Children of Israel set out for the Promised Land in Numbers 10:11, there is a span of approximately 50 days. During that span of days, the book of Leviticus takes place, at the foot of Mount Sinai. This short 50 days is a time of uninterrupted teaching for the Children of Israel. They no longer have to worry about living in Egypt...Pharaoh's armies have all been drowned in the Red Sea, so there is no more slavery. They have not yet confronted the Hittites, the Amalekites, the Jebusites, the Amorites, or the Canaanites that dwell by the sea and along the Jordan in the Promised Land. Numbers 13:29. In this short time, God is laying the groundwork for how the Children of Israel were to be Holy people, God's chosen people, set apart for His purpose, in order that they might demonstrate what it meant to worship a Holy God, and to live a Holy life. God saw it as a must that His children would regard Him as Holy and that they too would be Holy.

So often we talk about how important it is to NOT run ahead of the Lord. But it is just as important that we would not run ahead of the groundwork that the Lord is laying in our lives. Holy on to the things the Lord has already taught you (with conviction) and then learn some more. Paul reminds Timothy in 2 Timothy 3:14-15, "But as for you, continue in what you have learned and become convinced of, because you know those from whom you learned it, and how from infancy you have known the holy scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.” This is the groundwork that God is laying in our lives...sometimes we need to slow down and listen and learn.

We may not be going through a trial or a time of testing right now, but we will eventually. And depending on how well we allow God to lay that groundwork in our lives now, through the reading and the application of the Word of God, will have everything to do with how well we will walk through that storm when it does come. Let's not run ahead of the Lord when He wants to teach us something. As He lays the groundwork now, it will be to our benefit and our protection later. God knows what's ahead, and He knows what we need.

Blessings to you as you walk with the Lord,

Pastor Steve

Kristi and I would like to wish each one in our congregation a very happy and joy filled New Year, because our Joy is in Christ.

Thank you for your kindness towards us, your cards and gifts, and certainly all your prayers.

*We thank you for your part in the ministry on behalf of our congregation.
We wait with Joy as we look forward to what God will do in our midst in 2025.*

*We love you all, and are so thankful for you.
We press on in the Lord as we continually look to Him.*

*God's blessings,
Pastor Steve and Kristi*

What are your thoughts as you look back over the last year?
Was it a year of heartache and loss, tragedy and sorrow?
Or happiness and joy, success and achievement?
Do you close the book on this year with regret, or with relief?

No matter what your answer is, I hope you will pause and prayerfully ask yourself two important questions. First, how do you think God looks on this past year in your life? Did it bring you any closer to Him? Second, what lessons will you take from this year into the next? What did God teach you?
Don't be bound by the past and its failures.
But don't forget its lessons either.

*"But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward What is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus."
Philippians 3:13-14*

Hope

As we start a new year,
the Bible tells us there can be hope for the future.

First....

There is hope of a changed person.
We are incapable of ridding ourselves of the selfishness and greed that cause conflict and strife and war.
Our only hope is a changed heart –
And JESUS is in the business of changing hearts.

Second....

There is hope of a changed world.
When we know Christ,
He gives us by His Spirit a new love and concern for others.
Changed by Christ,
we can begin to change our world.

Third....

There is hope of an unchanging eternity in Heaven.
This world is not all there is!

"If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation;
old things have passed away;
behold, all things have become new."

II Corinthians 5:17 NKJV

A Note from Me to You.....

Thank you so much for the cards and gifts for Christmas! All of you make me feel so appreciated, blessed and loved. I'm so very thankful for every one of you. May you all have a very blessed and happy year in 2025!

In Christ's Love,
Chrissie

at each meeting and pray many children come to know Jesus.

If you have any questions, you may contact Kristi Larson at 815-370-2395.

Jesus welcomed the children who flocked around Him:

“Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these” (Matthew 19:14). Their openness, their enthusiasm, their trust – all these delighted Jesus. A young child may not understand everything about God – but he or she can understand something. A young child understands love, and also understands what it means to obey someone. Don’t ignore the children God brings across your path, but by your words and by your example tell them about Jesus.

“He called a little child and had him stand among them... and He said...” whoever humbles himself like this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.”

Matthew 18:2-4
